It shall be the responsibility of the Tenant to note any damage to the Property observed during said walk-through if not already indicated on the report by Landlord, and Tenant expressly acknowledges that failure to do so may create liability on the part of the Tenant for any Property damage noted at the end of the Lease term. Tenant shall have the right to inspect the Property within three (3) banking days of receipt of the completed Rental Property Condition Report to confirm or dispute Landlord's assessment of the Property's condition. In the event Tenant disputes the accuracy of Landlord's Rental Property Condition Report, Tenant shall have five (5) banking days from the receipt of the Rental Property Condition Report to notify the Landlord in writing of which specific items Tenant disputes. All notices delivered as a result of this section shall be delivered in a manner consistent with the section of this Lease entitled "Notices."

12. RIGHT OF ENTRY

Tenant agrees that Landlord may enter the Property during reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the Property and Tenant's compliance with the terms of this Lease, making repairs, alterations, improvements or additions as Landlord may deem appropriate and showing the Property to prospective purchasers or tenants. If the Property is damaged by fire, flood, toxic environmental hazard, extreme weather or other casualty not due to the negligence of Tenant, Tenant's invitees, licensees or guests, Landlord shall repair the damage within a reasonable time and rent shall continue unabated unless the casualty renders the Property fully untenable, in which case either party may terminate this Lease and Tenant, on payment of all rent due through the date Property is surrendered, shall not be liable for any further rent but shall be reimbursed the Security Deposit. In the event the Property is rendered only partially untenable by the above described casualty, Tenant shall be entitled to a reduction in the amount of rent proportionate to the amount of Property so damaged until such time as Property has been repaired; provided, however, that this shall not relieve the Landlord of the obligation to complete repairs within a reasonable time.

20. INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD

The Tenant shall not do or permit any act upon the Property which may subject the Landlord to any liability by reason of any illegal business or conduct upon the Property, or by reason of any violation of law or of any legal requirement of public authority, but shall exercise such control over the Property as to fully protect the Landlord. Notwithstanding that joint or concurrent liability may be imposed upon the Landlord by statute, ordinance, rule, regulations, or order, the Tenant shall indemnify the Landlord against any liability or expense of any nature due to the following:

20.1. Any breach of any covenant in this Lease required to be performed by the Tenant;

20.3. Injury to any person, including death resulting at any time therefrom, occurring in or about the Property and on the sidewalks adjacent to the Property. If the Tenant is required to defend any action or proceeding pursuant to any such occurrence to which the Landlord is made a party, the Landlord shall be entitled to appear, defend, or otherwise take part in the matter involved, at its election, by counsel of its own choosing, providing such action by the Landlord does not limit or make void any liability of any insurer of the Landlord or Tenant hereunder in respect to the claim or matter in question. The Tenant's liability under this section shall be reduced by the net proceeds collected from any insurance taken out by the Tenant to cover losses from the events herein described.

21. DEFAULT

Except as otherwise stated herein, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall be deemed to be in default hereunder, however, until and unless such party has been given written notice of its failure to comply with the terms of this Lease and thereafter does not cure such failure within three (3) banking days after receipt of such notice. In the event of any judicial or other adversarial proceeding between the parties concerning this Lease, to the extent permitted by law, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all of its reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs in addition to any other relief to which it may be entitled. Tenant covenants that Tenant has adequate financial resources to lease the Property. Tenant does not contemplate the filing of any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings, or any other proceeding for the relief of debtors in general, and Tenant acknowledges that Tenant's filing of a bankruptcy petition shall constitute an additional event of default hereunder, at which time this Lease shall immediately and automatically terminate with no right to cure.

21.2. Landlord's Default- If the Landlord should default on any of the provisions of this Lease, due to no fault of the Tenant, then Tenant shall be entitled, as Tenant's sole and exclusive remedy, to terminate this Lease, be reimbursed for Tenant's initial Security Deposit, and be paid a fee equal to the early termination fee (if any) described herein as full liquidated damages.

21.3. Waiver- All rights accorded to Landlord by this Lease shall be cumulative and in addition to any laws which currently exist or may exist in the future. Any failure by Landlord to exercise any rights under this Lease shall not act as waiver of those or any other rights, and shall not act as a bar to Landlord's future enforcement of those rights. No statement or promise by Landlord as to tenancy, repairs, and amount of rent to be paid, or any other terms shall be binding unless it is put in a writing signed by Landlord and made a specific part of this Lease.

22. BROKERAGE

Tenant and Landlord expressly acknowledge that Broker is not an expert in any of these areas and has given no advice nor made any representations in regard thereto upon which Tenant or Landlord have relied. All parties hereby release any Broker and any affiliated agent and employee from any cost, expense or liability that may result from their reliance on any perceived advice given with respect to the foregoing.
